

Sandwich Work and ELT Programme

English and unpaid work experience sandwich course (for non EU Citizens)

The Sandwich Work and ELT Programme is a specially designed sandwich course for those who want to combine a course of study with an unpaid work experience placement/internship. It is open to all nationalities and is also suitable for applicants with a slightly lower level of English, although the intermediate level is required by the time they are about to start working in their placement. The course elements are structured around learning valuable employment skills and also the improvement of their English proficiency.

Placements are arranged in areas suitable to applicant's educational background and interests. In addition, they can work towards one of the following English Language Qualifications: TOEIC, IELTS, FCE, CAE, CPE, BEC Preliminary, BEC Vantage and BEC Higher and complete the Cambridge Work Experience Certificate (these criteria are essential in securing a VISA).
